

Stakeholder Name / Group	Role / Responsibility	Influence Level	Interest Level	Key Requirements	Engagement Strategy	Frequency of Interaction	Communication Method
Patients	Service recipients; end users of appointment and notification system	Low	High	Easy online booking, real-time appointment notifications, reduced wait times, clear post-consultation instructions	Feedback surveys, usability testing	After consultation / quarterly	Online surveys, SMS/email
Doctors	Provide medical consultation; manage clinical schedules	High	High	Accurate appointment schedules, adequate consultation time, access to patient records, reduced overbooking	Interviews, workshops, requirement validation sessions	Monthly / per release	Meetings, workshops
Nurses	Support clinical operations and patient flow	Medium	High	Timely access to patient information, clear handover notifications, balanced workload	Focus group discussions, interviews	Monthly	Meetings
Administrative Staff	Manage appointment scheduling, records, and billing coordination	Medium	Medium–High	Reduce double booking, easy rescheduling, visibility into doctor availability, accurate patient records	Interviews, process walkthroughs	Monthly	Meetings
IT Teams	Design, develop, integrate, and maintain hospital systems	High	Medium	Clear functional & non-functional requirements, system stability, security standards, scalability roadmap	Technical workshops, backlog grooming	Weekly / bi-weekly	Meetings, documentation tools
Hospital Management	Strategic decision-making, budget approval, performance oversight	High	Medium	Operational efficiency, compliance, cost control, performance visibility through dashboards	Steering committee updates, executive briefings	Monthly / per milestone	Executive meetings, reports